Big Crops Better Prices
MORE MONEY BETTER TIMES

Every one is looking forward to better times and larger business this Fall. It will be only a few weeks until our corn and cotton crop will be moving in full blast and this is only a reminder to all our stock, produce, and future customers that I am in a better position than ever to take care of their needs in the Front and Fredston line.

If your old car, Truck or Tractor needs overhauling, it had better be done before the big moving starts. Come in and have our mechanics look it over for you.

If you are thinking of buying a new Ford car, Truck, or Tractor, would be glad to have you place your order now as all the Ford plants are running behind on orders and cars are hard to get.

Greater Home Comfort on Cold Days

Our stoves are the greatest heaters you ever saw. They will burn most any sort of fuel, and give plenty of heat to keep your home comfortable on the coldest days. Special construction which draws in the cold air from the floor, and returns it heated to the room is one of the chief reasons for the perfect heating they accomplish.

tance they look like giant atoms should just rising above the horizon. Here there are mountains all around us but the closest one is about three miles to the north of us. On account of the mountains on the west of us the sun sets about to rebeck. Last night it was 6:45 when it went down.

"But maybe I had better in- ish talking about the trip. Last Friday evening we crossed the Colorado River which is the boundary line between Arizona and California. We left Nogales, Saturday morning and started through the desert, but the desert it would be. There are cacti, brush, rocks and even mountains all over it. The roads were fine but in places they were awful rough. There was hard surface roads all the way in some places there was concrete and asphalt. It was not very hot drive- ing, but it was hot when we stopped. All the nights were not
